

TRINITY

ANGLICAN COLLEGE

Albury • Wodonga

A Code of Conduct

Trinity Anglican College exists as a place where a complete education may be undertaken in a challenging and cooperative environment. To develop such an environment, it is necessary to provide more than facilities for classes and cultural activity; we need to have an atmosphere that will foster the development of the soul, mind, body and character.

It is important therefore, that all associated with the life of the College regard themselves and other persons with dignity, courtesy and respect, and learn the importance of cooperating in a Christian learning community with diverse interests and traditions, but with a common concern for the wellbeing of all its members, and for the promotion of sound values.

Being enrolled at the College acknowledges acceptance, by students, parents and guardians, of the above Code of Conduct.

College Code

Applicable to all members of the College community

My Rights	My Responsibilities
I have the right to move about the College without being laughed at, hit, pushed, threatened, or in any way molested or mocked.	I am responsible to see that I do not laugh at, hit, push, threaten or in any way molest or mock other people at the College.
I have the right to be treated with respect and fairness, irrespective of my race, creed, intelligence, gender, physical prowess, language, shape, size or whether I may be different in any way from the majority.	I am responsible to see that I treat all people with respect and fairness even though they may differ in some way from the majority.
I have the right to expect my property to be safe within the College.	I am responsible to see that I do not steal, damage or destroy the property of others.
I have the right to learn in pleasant, well-kept surroundings that are free from noise or litter pollution.	I am responsible to see that I treat my surroundings with respect, and that I do not contribute to any kind of pollution within the College.
I have the right to attend to my College work without interference of any kind from other students.	It is my responsibility to see that I do not interfere with, or distract, other students from their work.
I have the right to be taught by teachers who are fair, competent and sympathetic to my needs.	It is my responsibility to cooperate and comply with the instructions of staff.
I have the right to be respected on social media and the internet.	I have a responsibility to ensure that my use of social media is not damaging to the reputation of Trinity Anglican College, its staff, parents or students.
